

CVPAC Minutes

Oct. 10, 2006

John Kidd called the meeting to order at 7:15.

Flag Salute

Judy Kidd read the minutes of the Sept. 12, 2006 meeting. George Morgan moved and Micca Harris 2nd to approve. Passed.

Old Business Judy Kidd read the letters concerning Highway 33 written to Senator McClintock and Assemblyman Nova. Jan Hensley stated that there was also a loss of revenue at the schools when the children couldn't get to school. ADA

John Kidd reported that he got a call from Lilly Okamura from Santa Barbara stating that she wanted our minutes and agenda from our meeting. She was to be the person to help us write a plan. Supervisor Centeno will be in Cuyama at the Rec. Hall on Oct. 11 at 10:00 and in Ventucopa at 11:30 to update the people in Cuyama Valley.

Judy Kidd reported on a public hearing on Oct. 2, 2006 concerning a split of 1154 acres on Bolthouse property.

Micca Harris reported that he had had some conversation for a repeater station in Cuyama for better cell phone service. Also, a lady from the Red Cross will be in Cuyama on Oct. 17, 2006.

New Business

- a. Joe Centeno will be at the Rec. Hall tomorrow morning, and John will suggest to him that he write something in the Cuyama Valley News to update the community.
- b. John had contact with Lilly Okamura, and she wouldn't be able to attend tonight.
- c. Questions for Supervisor Centeno for Wed., Oct. 11. were developed.

1. Is the CVPAC mixed in with the Rec. Hall? It shouldn't be, but we will help all we can.
2. What is the time-line for the pool and recreational plans? We'd like it in writing.
3. What do you see as your role in Cuyama Valley?
4. Why haven't we received an answer to our letter asking to be recognized by the board of supervisors?
5. Is there a written time-line for the development of a plan for Cuyama Valley?
6. Are we going to be assigned a planner?

Discussion followed. George Morgan moved Jan Hensley 2nd to adjourn 8:35
