

CVPAC
New Cuyam Recreation Hall
Mar. 13, 2007

John Kidd called the meeting to order at 7:03.

Judy Kidd read the minutes of the February meeting. George Morgan moved and Mica Harris seconded to approve. Passed.

OLD BUSINESS

Judy Kidd reported on the Jan. 24th meeting with Supervisor Centeno at the Rec. Hall
George Morgan reported on the Feb. 28th meeting with Supervisor Centeno. George also stated that at least Cuyama is now getting some attention from the county.

Marty Eifrid asked about the area of the plan. Was it for the townsite only? It was discussed that the intention was meant to be a plan for the whole Valley not just one area. That is the goal of the people who have been attending the meetings. It was discussed that it would be nice if more people from New Cuyama would attend the meetings.

Tom Mounts asked about the bridge across the wash, and Centeno had reported that the problem had been mitigated, and the bridge would be reinstalled.

Mica Harris suggested that if we progressed with a plan, perhaps we could incorporate it with a civics class at the high school for the students

Marty Eifrid suggested that when the Troesh mine permit goes to the planning committee, we should get the date and make people aware of the meeting.

NEW BUSINESS

John Kidd stressed again to be aware of the planning committee meetings and Board of Supervisors' meetings concerning the mines.

Mica Harris moved and George Morgan 2nd to have an April 10th meeting. Passed.

Tom Mounts gave a report on the Ranchoil subdivision and also said that Rosemary Farms owns 1,000 acres on Foothill Rd., and he has heard they are planning to relocate to Cuyama Valley.

George Morgan moved, and Tom Mounts 2nd we adjourn. Passed 8:20
