

CVPAC Minutes

June 12, 2007

John Kidd called the meeting to order at 7:10.p.m.

Tom Mounts led the flag salute.

Judy Kidd read the May minutes. George Morgan moved and Mica Harris 2nd to approve. Passed.

Old Business.

- a. Report on Troesh Hearing on May 30th. Those present gave their input on the meeting. As a whole, the group felt the county planners were obviously biased towards approving the Troesh project. Discussion followed.
- b. Judy Kidd reported she took an EPA report to Supervisor Centeno and spoke with Jack Boysen.

New Business

- a. Derek Thompson is supposed to contact John about the plan. We will decide on how to meet agreement on various matters in the plan.
- b. Election of new officers comes up in July.

Public Forum

Tom Mounts reported on a letter he received from Mulholland Construction concerning the ground-breaking of the Ranchoil Estates subdivision. It also stated the county would maintain the roads.

Jenny Lee gave a list of complaints that she has against the county officials and is considering legal action. The people attending the meeting feel we have been manipulated by county personnel using the swimming pool and recreational facility as a trade-off for us accepting the Troesh project and affordable housing. Discussion followed

Marty Eifrid – stated that he is going to write a letter to the one woman on the planning commission whom he felt had the most incite on the effects the Troesh project could have on Cuyama Valley. It was agreed that was a good idea.

Adjournment - Tom Mounts moved and Mica Harris 2nd we adjourn. Passed 8:25
